

Gallery/City

A Selection from the Gallery's Collection and Archive

This is the fourth in a series of exhibitions marking the 120th anniversary of Kfar Saba. It presents extensive parts of the gallery's archive and collection, established at the same time as the Exhibition Hall at the Reisel Cultural Center in the 1970s. The exhibition features a selection of works from the gallery's collection, which was built over the years thanks to generosity of artists who donated works from their exhibitions at the gallery. It also presents archival materials documenting past gallery events, including invitations, posters, and catalogues of numerous exhibitions, correspondences, and more. Also on view is a selection of works created by elementary school students in the city, made following guided tours of the gallery exhibitions, which are held as part of the city's "Culture Basket" activities.

Hagar Raban